1. Introduction

There are references throughout this Code of Conduct (the Code) to 'you' and 'your' which means the member of staff of Melville Housing Association who has signed this Code. References to 'we', 'us' and 'our' mean Melville Housing Association.

- 1.1 Melville Housing Association attaches the greatest importance to ensuring that high standards of behaviour are demonstrated by all of our people and in all of our activities.
- 1.2 This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of conduct required of you as a member of our staff.
- 1.3 As a Registered Social Landlord (RSL), we are required to adopt and comply with an appropriate Code of Conduct¹. This Code is based on the Model Code of Conduct produced by the Scottish Federation of Housing Associations and EVH² – Supporting Social Employers. The Scottish Housing Regulator (SHR) has confirmed that this Code fully complies with its Regulatory Standards and their input during the production of this code is acknowledged.
- 1.4 You must make yourself familiar with the terms of this Code and act in accordance with its requirements at all times. You are required to sign the Code (in the 'Statement of the Acceptance' at the end) to confirm that you have read and understood the terms of the Code and you have a personal responsibility to uphold the requirements of this Code.
- 1.5 You must also ensure you are familiar with, and comply with all of our policies.
- 1.6 If there are any aspects of this Code, or of any of the related policies, on which you are unclear, you must seek guidance from your manager. Your manager or the Chief Executive will also be able to give guidance where you are unsure how the Code or related policies apply in a particular situation.

2. Who the Code applies to

- 2.1 This Code of Conduct applies to everyone who works for us whether employed directly or otherwise.
- 2.2 A copy of this Code will be given to every person that it applies to.

3. How the Code is structured

- 3.1 The Code is based on the Nolan Principles on Standards in Public Life³ which are recognised as defining good conduct for those who work for the public using public money.
- 3.2 We have defined three groups of principles as the basis for the Code:
 - a. Honesty and Integrity
 - b. Openness and Accountability
 - c. Selflessness, Objectivity, Leadership
- 3.3 Each of the three sections begins with a statement of principle. This is followed by a number of provisions which set out the requirements of the Code in more detail.
- 3.4 The Code is not exhaustive and it should be remembered that all staff members of RSLs are responsible for ensuring that their conduct at all times meets the high standards that the RSL sector is recognised for upholding. As well as observing the detail of the Code, you should apply its intention and spirit to all situations in employment.
- 3.5 You are required to sign the Statement of Acceptance at the conclusion of this code on page 11 which also outlines the implications for any breach of the code.

Declaring and Managing Personal Interests

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Being a member of Melville Housing Association staff is of course only one part of your life. Other aspects of your life - such as family, friends and neighbours, voluntary work, causes you support, possibly business or financial interests, possibly your own housing arrangements - may have the potential to cross over into your role as a staff member.
- 1.2 However, as we are an organisation that works for the community and uses public funds, it is essential that there is no conflict and that there can be no reasonable perception of conflict between your duties as a member of staff and your personal (or personal business or financial) interests.
- 1.3 Any potential conflict between your position as a member of our staff and your other interests must be openly declared and effectively managed so as to protect the good reputation of Melville Housing Association and the RSL sector.
- 1.4 As stated in the Code (Declaring interests), where you have a personal business or financial interest in any matter that is relevant to our activities or is being considered (or is likely to be considered) or you know that someone to whom you are closely connected has such an interest, you must declare it promptly and record it in the Register of Interests.
- 1.5 This Appendix gives further guidance on how to declare and manage any personal (including personal business or financial) interests.

2. Examples of interests that must be declared

- 2.1 The following are examples of the kind of interest that you must declare. Please note that this list is not exhaustive, and there may be other interests that you should also declare:
 - Personal involvement or relationship with either a Board Member, Committee Member, Member of Staff, Service User or contractor.
 - Tenancy of a property (by you or someone to whom you are closely connected) of which we are the landlord.
 - Occupancy or ownership of a property (by you or someone to whom you are closely connected) which is factored or receives property related services from us.

- Receipt of care or support services from us.
- Membership of a community or other voluntary organisation that is active in the area(s) we serve.
- Voluntary work with another RSL or with an organisation that does, or is likely to do, business with us.
- Membership of the governing body of another RSL.
- Being an elected member of any local authority where we are active.
- If you purchase goods or services from us.
- If you purchase goods or services from one of our approved contractors or Framework Agreement partners.
- Significant shareholding in a company that we do business with.
- Membership of a political, campaigning or other body whose interests and/or activities may affect our work or activities.
- Ownership of land or property in our areas of operation excluding for the purpose of your own residential use (i.e. there is no requirement for you to declare any house in which you currently live).
- Unresolved dispute relating to the provision of services in connection with a tenancy or occupancy agreement or a contractual dispute over the provision of goods or services with us.

2.2 If you are not sure whether a certain matter needs to be declared, you must seek guidance from your line manager, Chief Operating Officer or Chief Executive. If doubt remains, the advice would always be to declare the matter.

2.3 You should note that in some circumstances, declaration of an interest may not be sufficient, and that it may be necessary for the organisation to take additional measures to deal satisfactorily with the situation so as to protect the probity and reputations of both yourself and the organisation.

3. Definition of 'close connection'

- 3.1 Someone 'closely connected' to you includes family members and persons who might reasonably be regarded as similar to family members even where there is no relationship by birth or in law.
- 3.2 As well as considering your own actions, you must be aware of the potential risk created by the actions of people to whom you are closely connected. Who you should consider, and our expectations of you to identify and declare such actions are outlined in Table A.

Table A

Members of your household This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Anyone who normally lives as part of your household (whether related to you or otherwise)• Those who are part of your household but work or study away from home	We expect you to be aware of and declare any relevant actions of all people in your household. What You Need To Consider

3.3 The following are the relevant actions /involvement by those to whom you are closely connected that you should consider, declare and manage as per our expectations outlined in Table A:

- A significant interest in a company or supplier that we do business with. A significant interest means ownership (whole or part) or a substantial shareholding in a business that distributes profits, but does not include where an individual has shares in large companies such as banks, utility companies or national corporations, i.e. where owning shares would not give the individual any significant influence over the activities of that organisation.
- Where the individual may benefit financially from a company with which we do business
- Involvement in the management of any company or supplier with which we do business
- Involvement in tendering for or the management of any contract for the provision of goods or services to us.
- Application for employment with us.
- Application to join our Board or any of its subsidiaries
- Application to be a tenant or service user of the organisation
- If they are an existing tenant or service user of the organisation

4. Declaring personal interests

4.1 Melville Housing Association has a Declaration of Interest Register. A new member of staff would be required, on appointment, to complete a form to register any personal interests that could potentially conflict with their role. Thereafter an annual declaration form is sent to staff for completion and any changes are then updated in the register. You have a responsibility to notify Directorate of any changes thereafter.

4.2 As stated in this Code (Declaring Interests), you must keep your entry in the Declaration of Interests Register up to date, add any new interests as soon as they arise, and amend existing interests as soon as any change takes effect.

4.3 A situation may arise where you are invited to be present at a meeting where a matter in which you have a personal (or a personal business or financial) interest is discussed. In such cases you must inform the meeting chair at the start of the meeting, or as soon as you become aware that this is the case. You would then be required to leave the meeting for the duration of the particular item. If in any doubt, you should ask the meeting chair or another senior person present for guidance. This applies to all meetings that you attend as a member of our staff – both internal and external.

- 4.4 Any failure to make a complete, accurate and prompt declaration - whether deliberately or through taking insufficient care - will be regarded as a breach of this Code.
